

2022

DAHS Youth

Baseball Camp

Does your son need to improve upon his baseball skills that will help him perform at a peak level this summer? Then he needs to take this April to work on those skills and improve his all-around game to be ready for the first pitch of the 2022 season.

DAHS Head Baseball Coach Harold Olson and his staff take pride in providing a well-organized and efficient flow of instruction and drills at the annual spring camp. This will help your son improve his playing skills and build the confidence he needs to perform at his best.

Don't be fooled by the expensive fees of $150, $250, or even $350 that other camps around the area charge. This camp will only cost you only $60 and your son will receive the same quality instruction that is offered elsewhere.

So, get your son out of the house, come on over to DeForest High School – South Gym, and work on some baseball skills in preparation for the upcoming season.
